AFTER TWENTY YEARS.

Wednesday next week here the Notember term of the superior court, with Judge Milton A. Shumway of Danielon and a jury, will open with a large locket to go through, beginning with the $10,000 damage suit of Mildred P.
Raymond of East Lyme vs. Fitch D.
Crandall of New London, which is one that will be followed with considerable local interest, particularly by the owners and operators of motor vehicles. Mrs. Raymond sues at administratrix of the estate of her minor son, who was killed last summer when struck near his home by Mr. Crandalfs touring car.

The suit calls for $10,000 damages.

PHILATHEA NOT WORRIED BY STORMY WEATHER

Class of First Baptist Bible School Conducts Successful Social Evening. At the First Baptist church Friday

At the First Baptist church Friday evening, the storm was forgotten by the large number who attended the entertainment held by the Philathea class of the Bible school.

The parlors were effectively decorated with the class colors, yellow and black, and with the class emblems.

A musical and literary programme of exceptional merit was given and greatly cujosed by all.

The programme was as follows: Cor-

The solos of Miss Florence Brooks of Chester were especially pleasing. She had never been heard in Norwich although she is well known in other arthough she is well known in other parts of the state. The numbers sung by Miss Brocks were well adapted to her style of singing; showing a so-prane voice of richness and delicacy of tone which delighted her audience and won enthusiastic applause. Miss incoke responded to several encores. Mas Brooks responded to several encores. Mas Buth Weld of Meriden was a brilliant accompanist for Miss Brooks. The selections given by Mrs. Manning were as always, bright and enloyable. During the intermission foe cream and home made candy were disposed of, Miss Elizabeth Park and Mrs. LeRue Bliven were accompanists during the evening.

The Philathean scored a success both in the programme arranged and financially. The committee having the cially.
